

Idea 8 - Job exchange platform

A multisided platform and job exchange service, enabling people to work as substitutes for each other. The system could be a great fit to international companies and even within some different organizations to boost crosscultural/intercultural relationships.

Access:

It can be accessed via either the company websites or mobile applications.

Benefits: Strengthening network and mutual trust, a unique experience in different work environments, working with different cultures, boosting confidence.

